REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

New Boston School District:

At the close of last school year Victor Sanborn, who had been teaching for us, resigned to accept a position in the new high school at Penacook, N. H. As his successor, Donovan Stevens was secured. Mr. Stevens has had previous experience in junior high school and high school work.

During the last vacation, Miss Geer attended the summer session at Columbia University, Miss Rachel Kendrick attended the summer session at Plymouth School, and Mr. Nedeau studied at the New Hampshire University.

The public library here has made accessible a number of reference books for use in the grades seven and eight and in the high school. These books "help out" in one of our "weak spots"—which is the lack of reference books. There are already a number, of course, but the cost to buy very many, to be used in connection with English, science, history, agriculture, and general use, is more than the usual budget provides for.

The state average cost for books for elementary schools last year was $1.13 per pupil. The average cost per pupil for supplies was $1.47. The appropriation for elementary books in this year's budget allows $1.65 for books, and $1.30 for supplies. The state average total for elementary books and supplies is $2.60. In New Boston this year, the budget total allows $2.95. For high school books the state average for last year was $2.39 and for supplies $2.97, or a total per pupil,for books and supplies, of $5.36. The amount in the budget for the year—for high school books, is $2.75—and for supplies the same amount, or a total of $5.50. This is $.14 above the state average. These amounts are just about required for the annual replacement. Manifestly, not many text books can be bought for $1.65—and that is the elementary allowance. The $1.30 for elementary supplies includes paper of all kinds, pencils, erasers, ink, crayons, black-board erasers, and all other small items. In high school the allowance of $2.75 for books allows scarcely anything for reference books, but is required mainly for replacement of text books. The same allowance for supplies is required for the "supplies" items mentioned above.

The Librarian also has suggested that in buying new books, we plan not to make duplications. This again, means more library material will be available. If people of the village would come into the high school room almost any time, any day, they would be interested to see the busy corner where the reference books are kept on shelves and tables made by the boys in the "shop".

This is about the state average for attendance.

Debating is carried on again this year, directed by Mr. Nedeau, a "subject" for which no "credit" is given as such. The value of it lies not as "credits" but in the experience it affords, the orderliness of mind which it demands, and the cultivation of the ability to say tersely, yet powerfully what one means. These are qualities that are of value beyond a "mark" for "credit" on the "books". Our young people are to be commended.

Miss Geer directs music and dramatics.

For whatever values—schools afford credit—credit may be given to the teacher, and school board, and the always helpful people in the towns.

Respectfully submitted,

J. BYRON TARNEY,
Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD

To the Selectmen of New Boston and the Inhabitants of the School District:

During the past few years we have made numerous alterations and repairs to our school building. At this time we feel the building and grounds are in excellent condition after the strain of the flood and wind last fall.

We feel our teachers are doing their work in splendid fashion.

The School Board wishes to thank all the citizens of the district for their help and co-operation shown in the past, also the interest and contributions of organizations which provide funds for prizes.

We appeal to parents and those interested in education to visit school and become better acquainted with our teachers, and the young people of our community.

EUPHEUMA K. BOULTER.
